United Through Reading connects military families who are separated –for deployment or military assignment–by providing the bonding experience of shared storytime. Stop by the Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Easterseals to make your holiday video storybook recording! After completing a video storybook recording for a special child in your life, you'll receive a copy of your recording and the new book you read. Best of all, this is FREE! What a great gift for the holidays.
