Presented by

Lori Overland, MS, CCC-SLP

Date & Location:

Thursday, August 16th, 2018

at

Easterseals DuPage & Fox Valley

830 S. Addison Ave.

Villa Park, IL 60181

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION/TARGET AUDIENCE

In Lori Overland's updated 1-Day Sensory/Motor Approach to Feeding workshop, the complex issues surrounding feeding disorders are discussed. The class reflects new research and understanding of sensory processing and the impact on feeding. Pre-feeding exercises designed to develop the underlying oral sensory motor skills to support safe nutritive eating, and therapeutic feeding techniques are targeted for breast, bottle, spoon, up, straw, and solids. The techniques incorporate a variety of temperatures, textures and tastes. Also featured is hands-on learning of proper therapeutic techniques for spoon feeding, straw drinking and chewing solid foods. Leave this workshop with therapeutic feeding techniques that you can use with confidence the next day.

This course is intended for: Speech Therapists & Occupational Therapists who work with oral-feeding issues. Special Education Teachers & parents will also find this course of interest.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon the completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify and define the developmental acquisition of feeding skills.
- Identify individual oral-phase feeding deficiencies.
- List at least four goals of an SLP-administered oral-motor feeding program.
- Apply at least 4 techniques to improve oral movement.

About the Instructor:

Lori Overland is a speech and language pathologist with more than 35 years of professional experience. She holds degrees from Hofstra University and Adelphi University and has her neurodevelopmental certification.
