

Federal Agency	President's FY 2019 Budget Proposal	Difference from 2017 Enacted
U.S. Department of Defense	$686 billion	$80 billion or 13-percent increase
U.S. Department of Education	$59.9 billion	$7.1 billion or 10.5-percent decrease
U.S. Department of Energy	$29 billion	More than 3-percent decrease
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services	$68.4 billion	$17.9 billion or 21-percent decrease
U.S. Department of Homeland Security	$46 billion	$3.4 billion or 8-percent increase
U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development	$39.2 billion	$8.8 billion or 18.3-percent decrease
U.S. Department of the Interior	$11.3 billion	$2.2 billion or 16-percent decrease
U.S. Department of Justice	$28 billion	$345 million or 1.2-percent decrease
U.S. Department of Labor	$9.4 billion	$2.6 billion or 21-percent decrease
U.S. Department of Transportation	$15.6 billion	$3.7 billion or 19-percent decrease
U.S. Department of the Treasury	$12.3 billion	$392 million or 3-percent decrease
U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs	$83.1 billion	$8.7 billion or 11.7-percent increase