SERVICE SATISFACTION:

New Frontiers Employment Services regularly solicits feedback from individuals we serve regarding their level of satisfaction with our services.

This is what some of our employers and funders have to say about our services:

- "Immediate response to our needs."
- "Staff responds promptly and professionally."
- "The Metropolitan Evansville Transit System is proud to partner with New Frontiers Employment Services to provide work opportunities to individuals that some may see as disadvantaged. NFES job coaches work one-on-one with our employees, helping both the employees and our organization. Working with NFES has been beneficial to both the individual workers and our transit system and I recommend this program to all employers in our community." – Tony A. Kirkland, Director.

This is what some of our clients and their families have to say about our services:

- "I like knowing that there was someone there to go to for help and that they cared."
- "I'm doing something that I never thought I could!"
- "The experience I had was the most positive experience I had encountered in a year. Couldn't be where I'm at in life had it not been for you. Thank you so much. Love the job you got for me."
