

Dear Friends,

After 19 years, Easterseals Joliet Region had its grand finale American Girl Fashion Show in November 2016. The event raised over $250,000 over the span of 19 years to benefit children with disabilities. After almost two decades, American Girl has decided to streamline the show and hold it only at American Girl retail locations to support its partner children's hospitals.

This year, Easterseals Joliet Region will be recreating The Walnut Room Experience. This holiday family gathering in our community will be November 18th and 19th at the Jacob Henry Mansion Ballroom. Guests will dine under a grand Christmas tree, listen to holiday music, make wishes with Christmas fairies, have a visit from Santa, and much more.

Together, the Easterseals family has helped provide services and support to over 3,287 children and adults with disabilities, those with special needs and their families from 82 communities throughout the region. Proceeds from this event will continue our important work.

There are several sponsorship opportunities available to help make this event a success. Our hope is that it will become a tradition in our community for families to enjoy during the holiday season. Please help celebrate the traditions of the holiday season by supporting this event.

Sincerely,

Deb Strahanoski
