On Thursday, October 4, Freeholder Jim Jefferson attended the ribbon cutting ceremony at the new Easterseals Employment Services location in Woodbury, declaring the location fully open to the public.

Jefferson, who serves as liaison to the Department of Health and Human Services said, "Easterseals strives to help children and adults with disabilities and their families, offering a wide range of services including residential, educational, and work-based services. Their goal is to make profound, positive differences in people's lives every day, helping clients build the skills and access the resources they need to live, learn, work and play."

Easterseals' Woodbury is located at 603 N. Broad Street, Suite 210, Woodbury.
