

COVID-19 Notice of Risk and Responsibility Summer Camp 2022

Given the current state of SARS CoV-2 (COVID-19) in the surrounding communities, state, country and world, Easterseals cannot guarantee that all those who attend its camps, participate in its programs or enter its properties are not asymptomatic carriers of the virus.

We encourage everyone to visit their primary physician regarding potential risks and follow all applicable government guidelines. Your health and well-being are our number one concern and you should only participate in our programs if you are willing to assume the additional risk due to COVID-19 at this time.

By signing below you:

- a) acknowledge all risks described above.
- b) acknowledge your part in keeping camp safe for all by practicing written and verbal safety guidelines.
- c) release Easterseals, its staff and all other participants and program collaborators from any and all claims for liability if you/your guardian contracts the COVID-19 virus while attending one of our camps.
- d) to the extent allowed by applicable law, covenants to not sue Easterseals, its staff and all other participants and program collaborators in connection with any such claims, liabilities or cause(s) of action related to COVID-19.
- e) if any part or parts of this notice are held to be invalid or unenforceable, all remaining portions of this release shall continue in effect.
