Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Easterseals Charter School a division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc. as of June 30, 2018 and 2017, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated September 27, 2018, on our consideration of Easterseals Charter School a division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of Easterseals Charter School a division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering Easterseals Charter School, a division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

NOTE 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Organization and Purpose

Easterseals Charter School (the School) is a division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc., formerly known as Easter Seal Society of Volusia and Flagler Counties, Inc., (the Organization). The Organization is a not-for-profit corporation that provides services to children and adults with disabilities or other special needs and their families. The Organization offers a broad range of services including the following: physical, occupational, speech and language therapies; autism early diagnosis and functional assessments; pre-school; camping and recreation; and family community education. These programs are operated at various locations in Volusia, Flagler, Putman, Lake, and Sumter Counties in the State of Florida. The governing body of the School is the Board of Directors of the Organization which is comprised of voluntary members. The Principal of the School oversees its daily functions and reports directly to the President of the Organization who in turn reports directly to the Board of Directors. The purpose of the School is to improve learning and academic achievement by providing classroom instruction and interventions to achieve optimum learning for children with special needs to master developmental objectives with their non-disabled peers. For the school years ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, the Organization operated one School site at its Daytona Beach facility. At the Daytona Beach site, the School serves up to fifty-seven (57) students. In addition to the Daytona Beach, Florida site, the Organization leased facilities in Deland, Florida in January 2017 for a West Volusia School. The Deland School site opened in August 2017 for the 2017-2018 school year. At the Deland site, the School serves up to twenty-nine (29) students. However, by mutual agreement between the School and the School Board of Volusia County, Florida the number of students served may be increased.

The general operating authority of the School is contained in Section 1002.33 of the Florida Statutes. The School operates under a charter of the sponsoring school district, which is the School Board of Volusia County, Florida (the District) and began operations in September 2005. The current charter was renewed effective July 1, 2018 through June 29, 2023, and may be renewed in increments of five years by mutual agreement between the School and the District. At the end of the term of the charter, the District may choose not to renew the charter under grounds specified in the charter in which case the District is required to notify the School in writing at least 90 days prior to the charter's expiration. Pursuant to the Florida Statutes, in the event the School is dissolved or terminated, any property purchased by the School with public funds and any unencumbered public funds, except capital outlay funds, revert back to the District. Any unencumbered capital outlay funds revert back to the Florida Department of Education to be redistributed among eligible charter schools. During the term of the charter, the District may also terminate the charter if good cause is shown. The School is a Florida public school and is subject to supervisory jurisdiction of the District and accountable to the District for performance, as provided by the charter agreement and Florida Statutes.

Significant Accounting Policies

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies and practices of the School, which affect significant elements of the accompanying financial statements.

- (a) Basis of accounting—The School uses the accrual basis of accounting, which recognizes revenue when earned and expenses as incurred. The special purpose financial statements present the statements of financial position, activities and cash flows for the School. The accounts of the School are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting.
- (b) Basis of presentation—The School utilizes the standard state codification of accounts as contained in the “Financial and Program Cost Accounting and Reporting for Florida Schools” as a means of codifying all transactions pertaining to its operations for the purpose of submitting year end reports to the District. Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board in ASC 958, Not-for-Profit Entities Presentation of Financial Statements. Under those standards, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Unrestricted net assets—Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations and are currently available at the discretion of the Board of Directors for use in the School’s operations.

Temporarily restricted net assets—Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that will be met either by actions of the School and/or the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets—Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations or by matter of law that they be maintained permanently by the School. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the School to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes.

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation or by law. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as net assets released from restrictions. It is the School’s policy to record donor-restricted contributions on which restrictions are met in the same reporting period as unrestricted contributions.

- (c) Deferred revenue—Capital outlay monies received by the School that have not been spent on qualifying expenses are recorded as deferred revenue in the accompanying statements of financial position.

NOTES TO SPECIAL PURPOSE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2018 AND 2017

(d) Cash and cash equivalents—For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less from the date of purchase to be cash equivalents.

(e) Use of estimates—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

(f) Income taxes—The School is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for taxes on unrelated business income. The School had no net unrelated taxable business income during the years ended June 30, 2018 and 2017. As a result, no provisions for income taxes are included in the accompanying financial statements. Additionally, no uncertain tax positions have been made requiring disclosure in the related notes to the financial statements.

The Organization files tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax examinations by taxing authorities for years before June 30, 2015.

(g) Revenue Sources—Revenues for current operations are received primarily from the District pursuant to the funding provisions included in the School’s charter. In accordance with the charter and the Florida Statutes, the School reports the number of full-time equivalent (FTE) students and related data to the District. Under the provisions of the Florida Statutes, the District reports the number of FTE students and related data to the Florida Department of Education (FDOE) for funding through the Florida Education Finance Program (FEFP). Funding for the School is monthly during the fiscal year and is adjusted to reflect revised calculations by the FDOE under the FEFP and actual FTE students reported by the School during the semi-annual designated FTE survey periods. Payments are based upon the revenue estimate for the enrollment adjusted retroactively for the actual FTE count, and adjusted for prior payments.

The School receives state funds through the District under charter school capital outlay funding pursuant to Section 1013.62 of the Florida Statutes. Funds are based upon a capital outlay plan submitted to the District and are generally limited to capital expenditures, lease, rent or construction of school facilities and related insurance expenses for the school.

Other accounts receivable reported at June 30, 2018 and 2017 consist of amounts due from the District for capital outlay funds for the period ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

(h) Property and equipment—The School capitalizes all expenditures in excess of $1,000 for property and equipment. The fair value of donated assets is simultaneously capitalized and recognized as support.

Temporary Restrictions

In the course of carrying out the contract agreement with the District, the School used capital outlay funds to acquire various equipment needed to carry out the program. The School amortizes the expiration of donor restrictions based on the useful life of the asset. The value of these temporarily restricted assets, net of accumulated depreciation as of June 30, 2018 and 2017 was $ -0- and $-0-, respectively.

In the event the School is dissolved or terminated, all remaining School property purchased with public funds automatically reverts to the District. These assets are depreciated by the School as if owned by them.

NOTE 6 – Deferred Revenues:

- (b) The School participates in state and federal school funding programs which are governed by various rules and regulations of the grantor agencies. Costs charged to the respective programs are subject to audit and adjustment by the grantor agencies.

In the opinion of the School management, there are no significant contingent liabilities relating to compliance with the rules and regulations governing the School's funding programs and accordingly, no provision has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements for any such contingencies.

- (c) In the normal course of conducting its operations, the School could become a party to various legal actions and proceedings. The School has no legal actions or pending proceedings in progress.

NOTE 8 – Retirement Plan:

NOTE 9 – Compensated Absences:

Employees of the Organization including the School employees are entitled to paid personal time off (PTO) benefits for vacation and sick days depending on length of services. Upon termination, half of the PTO earned in current year or rolled over from 2017 would be paid to the employee. Prior to this, employees were eligible to carryover up to one year of PTO hours depending on length of services. All earned PTO balances at December 31, 2015 were frozen. These earned PTO balances are payable to the employees upon termination or can be used in addition to any annual PTO received under the current policy if approved. The balances payable to eligible School employees for earned PTO under the former policy at June 30, 2018 and 2017 was $5,546 and $2,557, respectively.

NOTE 10 – Risk Management:

Workers compensation, property and general liability insurance coverage are being provided through purchased commercial insurance with deductibles for each line of coverage.

NOTE 11 – Concentration of Risk:

The School receives substantially all of its revenue from federal, state and local sources, passed through the District, which subjects the School to changes in government funding allocations. Continuing operation of the School is greatly dependent upon the continued funding by these entities.

Financial instruments that subject the School to concentrations of credit risk include cash. While the School attempts to limit its financial exposure, its deposit balances may at times exceed federally insured limits. The School has not experienced any losses on such balances.

NOTE 12 – Subsequent Events:

The Organization's management has evaluated subsequent events through September 27, 2018, which is prior to the financial statement availability date of September 28, 2018. Management determined there are no subsequent events which require disclosure.

To the Board of Directors of
Easterseals Charter School
A Division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc.

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Easterseals Charter School a division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2018, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated September 27, 2018.

Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of Easterseals Charter School a division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc.'s internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Easterseals Charter School a division of Easterseals Northeast Central Florida, Inc.'s financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.
