

Hats off to Mothers Luncheon benefits Easterseals

May 2, 2017

Grab your Easter bonnet, with all the frills upon it, and mark your calendar for the 16th Annual Hats off to Mothers luncheon benefitting Easterseals North Texas May 11.

The event honors five women who have made significant contributions to family life and community life in the North Texas area. This year's honorees are Wendy Fitzhugh Crowley, Mary Lynn Garrett, Jan Fite Miller, Rozanne Rosenthal, and Tracy Syler-Janes.

The luncheon will be held on Thursday, May 11, 2017, from 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Ridglea Country Club, 3700 Bernie Anderson Road, Fort Worth.

"Our honorees share a common thread," Easterseals North Texas said in a news release. "They are successful women, who have juggled family, jobs and schools so that their children and other women's children can have the best future possible."

Easterseals North Texas helps more than 5,000 individuals every year become more independent. The agency says that its therapists, job coaches and other professionals make profound differences in the ways people live, learn, work and play.

A table of 10 for $1,000; individual tickets to the luncheon are $100; and sponsorship packages range from $2,500 to $10,000.

Perhaps someone will follow through on Irving Berlin's popular song and write a sonnet about your Easter bonnet.
