RECOVERING WARRIOR AND CAREGIVER EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM

Approximately 5.5 million military caregivers are currently providing care for the recovering warriors who have been injured while serving our country. In order to find better, meaningful, and flexible jobs for these men and women, Hiring Our Heroes created the Recovering Warrior and Caregiver Employment Program. We are mobilizing the business community and educating them on the unique employment needs of recovering warriors and caregivers. Together, we can enable life-changing opportunities.

Recovering Warrior and Caregiver Employment Conferences

- Two-day events designed to help recovering warriors and caregivers find meaningful employment
- Pre-match process to connect employers with service members and caregivers for job interviews prior to or during the conferences
- Workshops, group sessions, and one-on-one mentoring with HR experts
- Best practice forums for employers on hiring and accommodating recovering warriors and caregivers

Caregiver Events

- Panel discussions focused on holistic solutions to caregiver employment challenges
- Access to private, public, and nonprofit organizations committed to providing caregiver support
- Networking receptions to allow caregivers to meet directly with employers and mentors in an informal setting

Recovering Warrior Internships

- Internship placement program for recovering warriors beginning in Fall 2014
- Program concentrated in Washington, D.C. area with goal to expand across the country
- Close ties to military hospitals, key leaders on installations, and Warrior Transition Units

Digital Programs

- Webinars for employers on recovering warrior hiring and retention strategies
- Virtual hiring fairs specifically designed for recovering warriors and caregivers
- Online workshops to provide essential job-seeking skills
