

► Who We Are

Easterseals Southern California delivers the Veteran Employment & Transition Services which provides employment transition support for veterans leaving the military.

While Easterseals is known for its services to people with disabilities, veterans do not need to have a disability to use Veteran Employment & Transition Services.

Veteran Employment & Transition Services

Easterseals is a great organization where people care about you and want you to succeed. They go out of their way to make sure that your transition to a civilian job goes as smoothly as possible."

— Charles, U.S. Navy

Veteran Employment & Transition Services

Employment support services assisting veterans to transition from the military to civilian work.

► What We Do

Veteran Employment & Transition Services provides one-on-one employment support services that assist veterans to transition out of the military to a civilian job or to build their own small business. We also provide this service to spouses/registered domestic partners of veterans.

► How We Do It

Veteran Employment & Transition Services offers:

- Individually tailored one-on-one support to determine interests, skills, desires and goals.
- Support translating military experience and skills into language employers understand.
- Motivation and inspiration to gain confidence.
- Assistance tailoring resumes to specific employment opportunities.
- Training to enhance communication and interviewing skills.
- Tools to develop networking skills.
- Links to a network of employers.
- A “foot-in-the-door” with potential employers.

► Who is Eligible*

Service Members & Veterans must:

- Be a Post 9-11 Veteran or Active Duty servicemember separating in the next three months.
- Have an Honorable, General, or Other-Than-Honorable discharge.
- Note: Spouses and registered domestic partners qualify only if their veteran has a disability and cannot work.

*Complete eligibility criteria reviewed upon registration.
