ABOUT FESTIVAL OF CHEFS

Festival of Chefs is an annual fundraiser presented by Goya is South Florida's most favored culinary adventure boasting signature dishes, wine & spirit tastings, live entertainment, and silent auction to support Easterseals South Florida Culinary Arts High School, a vocational training program for students with autism and other disabilities. However, due to the pandemic, the restaurant industry has suffered devastating losses over the last two years. To assist with the resurgence of the restaurant industry, we've collaborated with various South Florida chefs and restaurants to bring you the Festival of Chefs: Chef's Table Series. Over the next year, we will host various pop-up dinners to raise money for our Culinary Arts programs and increase the foot traffic to our local eateries. For the inaugural debut on November 10, 2021, at Casa Isola Osteria, attendees can expect a one-of-a-kind curated dinner experience, wine & spirit tastings, and other surprises with Chef/Restaurateur, José Mendín.

OUR GOAL

During the evenings' festivities it is the hope of Easterseals South Florida (ESSF) to raise unrestricted funds to benefit the students enrolled in the ESSF Culinary Arts High School, a vocational training program for students with autism and other disabilities.

WHY EASTERSEALS SOUTH FLORIDA?

Easterseals South Florida has been serving families in South Florida for nearly 80 years. Our mission is to provide exceptional services, education, and outreach so that people living with disabilities can live, learn, work and play in their communities. We want every child in our Head Start, early education, and special education programs to reach his/her full potential and every adult living with Alzheimer's or other memory disorder—and their caregivers—to live the fullest and most dignified life possible.
