

Paul Bianco is a patent and trademark attorney at Fleit, Gibbons, Gutman, Bongini and Bianco, whose practice is focused on patent and trademark transactional work. With regard to patents, his work is primarily in the areas of materials, mechanical and biomedical technologies. His practice includes patent and trademark prosecution, licensing, transactional and opinion work, and client counseling. Prior to joining the Firm, Paul worked in the Washington D.C. office of Pennie & Edmonds L.L.P. Paul graduated Cum Laude from the University of Pennsylvania with a B.S. in Bioengineering. He also earned his M.S.E. and his Ph.D. in Bioengineering from the University of Pennsylvania. After finishing his Ph.D., he completed a fellowship at the Center for Devices and Radiological Health at the Food and Drug Administration in Washington, D.C. Paul received his J.D., Cum Laude, from the Georgetown University Law Center.

Paul is also a former chair of the Easter Seals South Florida's board of directors.